Stewart was program chair. Ryan Ard with ServePro was the speaker. He runs several franchises here in the NW Georgia and adjoining states .

ServePro supports the community. It supports first responders by sanitizing vehicles free. It cleans old in churches and often is done free.

ServePro has been a franchise company since the 70s. Their main work is Fire, water and mold remediation. They clean homes, commercial and vehicles. They are looking for manpower. He asked for ideas to get and retain employees and received several.
