Back blessings 4pm packing only 1/11/2022

Club does Backpack Blessing 4/26.

Jim introduced the speaker who is a managing partner at True North advisers and over 20 years in business. It was Jim (and yes he introduced himself that way).

He spoke about market volatility. Market is driven by company earnings. He said 3-4 % growth predicted for this year. Very large amount of money pouring in currently as bonds too low. Banks may be interesting in 2022 as rising rates are good for banks and oil.

Advisors have said international is a great place 10 years but almost always lower than domestic.

Feds will raise rates this year they say.

There was a discussion on bitcoins. Dwight mentioned he has done several articles on bitcoin recently which are on his LinkedIn account an on a Facebook page he has for technology articles
