Carrie was program chair

She introduced Chris Lusk who was principal of Heritage Middle and now works in the central office as finance director. Carrie said he is her cousin.

He spoke about Leadership Catoosa which he and Dwight recently graduated from and Amy led as chamber CEO.

In the program you see various parts of the county. meet all day once a month for a trip (pre-Covid, then on zoom) and we got to visit various leaders, business and industry and trip to capital all on a yellow school bus. The group made new friends and contacts.

He also told us about the new college and career academy Catoosa County is building.

The chamber needs candy for various Halloween events. They expect record numbers.
