Kiwanis®

Fort Oglethorpe

The Fort Oglethorpe Kiwanis met on February 10 at Park Place Restaurant with Stewart presiding with 16 members and 2 guests.

Denny did the inspiration moment.

We had one new member.

Lynn gave away several items as Stewart led trivia.

Lynn introduced the speakers. Holly Reeve who then introduced the speaker Barron King. Both with the CHATT Foundation. Barron is the executive director. CHATT Foundation used to be Community Kitchen and was founded 40 years ago and hanged names recently. CGHATT stands for Center for Homeless Advancement for Today and Tomorrow.

They run several shelters, feed about 100,000 per year and assist people in finding housing.

They also offer showers and lockers to homeless and a mailing address.

They do job training also and find jobs beside bus routes.
