Jeff was program chair.

Chris McKeever spoke on the Thrive 55 community. Fort Oglethorpe is one of four communities invited to participate this year. Chris serves on board over it along with fellow Kiwanian Nicole Hill. It was started by the Chattanooga Chamber of Commerce to promote and improve communities around Chattanooga that in turn improve Chattanooga and them. After all training done the city will apply for a $20,000 grant thru Thrive 55 to do something to promote arts, a festival, etc to promote our city.

She talked about developing some event for Fort O. We did a survey for Thrive 55. They need ideas for events and why we come to Fort O. She mentioned chalk festivals.
