

Ft Oglethorpe Kiwanis Newsletter

September 19 2014 2-44

The Fort Oglethorpe Kiwanis met at Hutcheson Medical Center on September 19, 2014 with Dwight Watt presiding with 10 members and 2 guests present.

Greg Anderson was program chair and introduced Bebe Heiskell as speaker.

She is commissioner for Walker County. She reported Walker is doing well with industry. She talked about the new industrial park at the Swanson farm and the plant coming makes paint for Volkswagen and other autos. She said walker needs more retail businesses. Walker has been approved for a connector from I-75 but no funding.

She discussed the fair held at the Cove and other plans for Cove. The fair is planned for 2015.

Hutcheson Medical Center will hold the following public hearings to gauge support for the hospital. They plan to handle times tightly

Catoosa November 11 at the Colonade from 7pm to 8pm
Walker November 13 at Walker County Civic Center from 7pm to 8pm

Dade November 18 at the Administrative Building in Trenton from 7pm to 8pm

The Honeycutt tournament is on October 21 and we need to get teams and hole sponsors. Information to talk to people with about the tournament is attached

We were in the Swainsboro GA paper for doing a cross district project. I helped pick grapes and took pictures http://www.forest-blade.com/news/community/article_59ea335c-385e-11e4-860e-001a4bcf887a.html

Tell someone about Kiwanis and invite them to visit us.
