Due to weather mid-winter conference was postponed one month

Jeff Epperson was chair of program and introduced Jenny Kasper as the speaker.

Jenny Kasper is deputy warden at the Walker State Prison. Walker is a faith and character based prison. Other prisons have just a dorm for this program but all of Walker is in program. It is a medium security male prison. Various religions are in the program including Christian, Wicca, Buddhist, Muslim and more. She has been working at the prison for 15 years. The various programs are to improve the men and to get them not to return. They are doing some programs with GNTC also.
