

Fort Oglethorpe Kiwanis Newsletter

October 7 2016 5-1

The Fort Oglethorpe Kiwanis met at Park Place on October 7, 2016 with Kim presiding with 10 members and 2 guests present.

Dwight did the inspiration moment.

The installation banquet will be on October 11 at the 6th Cavalry Museum at 6:30pm. Chris to know ASAP if you are attending

The Governor's Official visit to our division is on October 20 at 7pm at Holiday Inn at Shallowford Rd and I-75. Cost is $30 and Dwight needs to know if you are attending before October 13. Meal choices are grilled salmon or vegetarian lasagna

Alice was program chair and introduced Alissa Best and Lt Ruth Cancia with the Salvation Army.

They told about the different Salvation Army programs in addition to bell ringing and disaster relief. There are many volunteer opportunities with bell ringing, angel tree, Thanksgiving meals and more.

We did a toast at the end of the meeting to the memory of Leonard Fant who we had an empty place setting for.
