The Fort Oglethorpe Kiwanis met at Park Place on June 10, 2016 with Alice presiding with 13 members and 5 guests present.

Ross gave the inspiration moment

Doris was program chair. She introduced Jim Winsett, president of the BBB. He told us the BBB had recognized Leonard in the past. The BBB promotes trust. The chapter serves 21 counties in NW Georgia and SE Tennessee. He told about their services. He said 65% or more of contributions to charities should go to their programs. They do customer reviews of businesses but businesses must say it was a customer before posted. You can see the reviews online or by calling a number.
