Ross was program chair and introduced Melissa Holcomb

She spoke about being a Catoosa County school social worker and the homeless students. To be homeless as a student includes not just living on street but families doubled up in a house. Homelessness lasts on average 9 months. Catoosa county provides transportation to their original school for continuity for students. There were 380 homeless students in county last year.

She also spoke about her work as a vet social worker and working with people to either live better with their dogs or dealing with loss of their dogs.

Upcoming Events

October 25 Honeycutt Golf Tournament

October 20 Governor's visit to division 7pm
