Wayne was program chair and introduced Jason Thomas pastor at First Baptist.

Jason Thomas spoke about the Ecuador mission by First Baptist Church.. He gave background and they have gone for 2 weeks in summer for several years. It was the result of them wanting to reach out globally. Ecuador is a Catholic country. with indigenous religions also. It is mostly a mountainous country and in area where they go. The Banos area is where mission is. He showed pictures of church camp they use as base and work at and from. The mission there is planting churches. Camp can handle several hundred people and does youth camps, retreats and is starting a seminary. He showed pictures of the camp and several waterfalls. Their Catholic beliefs is Mary based with big Mary, little Jesus.
