Election and annual meeting 4/30

We had a Kiwanian from Wisconsin (John) as a visitor and his son. His son is taking over a eye business in Fort Oglethorpe and prospective member.

PR was in charge of the program. Mike Cameron was the speaker.

Mike Cameron is a representative to the Georgia House and was elected last November.. He reported on what happened in the legislature this year.

He retired from Blue Cross. He told us about his campaign. Covid and the election were big issues this year. He serves on the agriculture and budget and fiscal affairs committees.. Hemp was an issue this year. The house opens with prayer daily led by ministers, rabbis and priests. He said it was a rough session.
