The STAR Teacher Ashley Wagner introduced the STAR student Jasper Sargent

Jasper told us her interest area was different than what Ashley Wagoner teaches, but she had the most influence on her and she was her best teacher even though she did not like the subject. She wants to go in analytical sociology and maybe double major in political science. She then wants to get a position where she affects policy.

Jasper is planning to go to Kennesaw State University or Berry College. Then possibly to Ivy League college. Last summer she took a college course in Chicago and enjoyed it. She did Governors Honors at Berry College.

After the meeting Dan told her he was STAR student at Ringgold High School in 1975.
