Fort Oglethorpe Kiwanis met on June 22, 2018 at Park Place Restaurant with Dan presiding

Catoosa County Distinguished Service Award Honoree Emerson Russell selected the Hunter Worley Foundation to receive $1,250 raised from the silent auction at the event. Gary Anderson, president of the Hunter Worley Foundation spoke to the club and outlined the important work being done. The foundation provides a network of pastoral support, counseling, and financial assistance for grieving families with over 100 families helped.

Mission: Through the grace of God to help families who have suffered the loss of a child by offering spiritual and financial support so they may begin to gain the strength to walk through the darkness and experience the love, joy and hope of life again. The foundation provides a network of pastoral support, counseling, and financial assistance for grieving families.

Walker County Distinguished Service Award honoree Susan Wells selected Rossville Summer Academy as her charity to receive $1,250. 2018 marks the 2nd year that the academy has provided enrichment programs during June for fifty incoming 5th graders. The students go on field trips, enjoy recreation, art and educational programs that allow them to have new experiences. The program is provided at no cost to the family and is offered through the North Georgia YMCA.
