Kiwanis®

Fort Oglethorpe

Sorry on lateness of this newsletter. Busy few weeks.

The Fort Oglethorpe Kiwanis met on August 21 at Park Place Restaurant with Chris presiding with 9 members and 1 guest.

Wayne gave the inspirational moment

Jim was program chair.

Shirley Smith spoke about the upcoming Smith and Wesley Concert at the amphitheater at the Colonade on September 26. Smith and Wesley were named group of the year in February. Confederate Railroad and others will play. The proceeds will go to Habitat for Humanity to rebuild after the spring tornado.

Each year they do a concert and use the funds raised to contribute to different groups.

Sponsorships and advertising are available.

Tickets are $20 or higher. They will sell 2000 tickets complying with Covid guidelines.

Chris said this may be a social activity for club.

August .26 will be the district council meeting done virtually. District elections will be then.
