Alice introduced the program for Jim

Lynn Huett of Lookout Mountain Community Services did the program. They do foster care. They contract with DFACS as they are a child placing agency. She goes to the family homes to train them. There is always a need for new homes. She said you are not too old to foster as she has foster parents in 60s and 70s. Some people foster, adopt and quit fostering. There is short term and long term foster.
