Fort Oglethorpe Kiwanis met on September 22 at Park Place Restaurant with 13 members and 1 guests with Kim presiding.

Business meeting next Friday (9/29) including installing 2017-18 officers. Friday will also be sock day for the VA hospital. Chris has bought a bunch of white socks cheap (only ones can be used) at a cheap price so we can give her monetary donations or if you want to buy and bring more you can.

Doris was program chair and introduced Neal Brown, chaplain at Southern Cross Ministries.

In 1986 he started as volunteer fire fighter while minister. He saw a need for chaplain for fire fighters. He then moved to NW Georgia and became a minister at a church here and he is still doing that. In 1999 after a firefighter died they started chaplains and he became a chaplain to police and fire fighters. Southern Cross Ministries was formed by sheriffs and Neal and others to provide chaplains to 12 local agencies (mostly Walker and Catoosa). They work with law enforcement, EMT and fire services. They provide chaplains at multiple locations when one is injured or dies.
