

Fort Oglethorpe Kiwanis September 8, 2017 5-38

Fort Oglethorpe Kiwanis met on September 8 at Park Place Restaurant with 12 members and 3 guests with Kim presiding.

Backpack blessings this Tuesday at 5 at old Osburn school. Remember the club is committed on Nov. 7 to supply a bunch of us to pack for Thanksgiving for the kids.

Doris was program chair and introduced Andrew McGill the senior VP for CHI memorial hospital. Jessica Long, CEO of Cornerstone Medical was also there. Both had birthdays this week so we sang them happy birthday.

Andrew McGill told about how the community clinics they have opened where Hutcheson had clinics, fits in their healthcare object to get people to use healthcare. They know that people who use healthcare are healthier. Making healthcare accessible is an important piece of the puzzle to getting people to use. Cornerstone is important part of that.

Their intention is to stabilize Cornerstone and start adding services. They want to build centers of excellence there.

Memorial has 1001 nurses in their system and recruiting more. Their goal is to spread the healing ministry of Christ
