

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN
Kiwanis Meeting
February 8, 2011

With Jason Johnson presiding, visitor Bobby Seamans led the Pledge of Allegiance and Roger Peebles gave the blessing. Guests for the evening were Christine McCroskey, Carolyn Canady, and Bobby Seamans. The meal was talapia, cole slaw, and baked potato.

John Black gave the sports report. The Packers won the Super Bowl by beating the Steelers. Packers quarterback Aaron Rodgers won the game MVP. Locally, Emanuel County Institute lost Coach Milan Turner to Thomson, where he will be coach and Athletic Director. In golf Mark Wilson won at Phoenix, while local golfer Blake Adams and early season phenom Jhonathan Vegas both missed the cut. Spring baseball is about to start, with the Braves reporting on Valentine's Day. The opening game against the Mets will take place on March 31. A last minute flash from Bulldog Land finds UGA running back Washaun Ealey in trouble with Coach Mark Richt. He was suspended indefinitely with no details provided. NASCAR will officially start with the race at Daytona on February 20.

Judge Brewer suspended court for the evening. President Jason announced the Board meeting for this Thursday, February 10, will start at 7:00 pm at the New China Restaurant.

The program for the evening was presented by President Jason, who requested input from the Club on ways we could increase membership and raise funds. John Black, who chairs the Membership Committee, updated the membership on activities to increase the number of members of the Club. Tim Goodman updated the membership on the status of the Pine Tree Festival tabloid and the Knotty Pine Run, our largest annual fundraisers. More information on membership and the tabloid and run will follow at the end of February. Club members are encouraged to share ideas for membership growth and fund-raising suggestions.

The red-velvet cake, baked and donated by Petite Garrett, brought $29 and was won by Bob Losser. Jim Daughtry won the Domino's Pizza, donated by Chris Cann, and the two meals were won by Charles Brewer and Tim Goodman.

Proverbs to Live by:

1. "A foot is a device for finding furniture in the dark."
2. "A committee is a thing which takes a week to do what one good man can do in an hour."
3. "A good name will wear out; a bad one may be turned; a nickname lasts forever."
4. "A proverb is a short sentence based on long experience."
5. (A special one for Judge Brewer) "A motion to adjourn is always in order."
