

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN
Kiwanis Meeting
February 21, 2012

With President Jim Daughtry officiating, David Bartram led the Pledge of Allegiance and Tim Goodman gave the blessing. Our guests for the evening were Ginger Bolton, Quintavious Adams, Jane Durden, and Joyce and Bob Boehmer.

The sports report was given by Tim Goodman. Bill Haas won the golf tournament at Riviera in a playoff over Phil Mickelson and Keegan Bradley. In the NBA, the big story is the mercuric rise of Jeremy Lin. In college basketball, Kentucky is still #1, followed by Syracuse at #2. Michigan State is climbed to #6 after Ohio State and Baylor began to fall this weekend. In NASCAR, Kyle Busch won the Budweiser Shootout at Daytona International Speedway, the home of the first real NASCAR event, the Daytona 500, which is next week. Carl Edwards is on the pole. In the EGC Bobcat sports nation, the women's basketball team finished the season at 16-14; the men's basketball record is 17-11; women's softball team is 13-4; and the men's baseball team is currently 9-10, having survived a brutal beginning of the season.

Judge Brewer suspended court for the evening.

Tim announced the next Board meeting is scheduled for Thursday, March 15, at 7:00 at Wares and Kiwanis mid-winter training will be on March 17 in Milledgeville.

The program for the evening was hosted by Ed Bolton, who introduced Dr. Bob Boehmer, Interim President at East Georgia College. Bob talked about the great relationship between East Georgia College (EGC) and the Swainsboro community and the warm and friendly welcome he and Joyce had received since he became the Interim President. He talked about what EGC has to offer and where the College is headed this year, everything from the Complete College Georgia initiatives, to the Jump Start Academy, to the ACE Academy, to community service seals of approval for students. Many great things are happening at EGC.

The chocolate cake, donated by Bobby Seamans and baked by Betty Price, brought $34 and was won by Jane Durden. Jim Daughtry won the Domino's Pizza, donated by Chris Cann. The two meals were won by Bob Losser and Bobby Seamans.

Common Fishing Terms for Judge Brewer and Rabbit:
Hook - A clever advertisement to entice a fisherman to spend his live savings on a new rod and reel. OR The punch administered by said fisherman's wife (can be a right hook or left hook) after he spends their life savings on new rod and reel.
Line - Something you give the Kiwanis Club members when they ask on Tuesday night how your fishing went the past weekend.
Sinker - An object that is attached to the fishing line to drive fish away from the angler's bait. A term also applied to a reel when the angler accidently turns lose of the rod.
