

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN
Kiwanis Meeting
March 22, 2011

With President Jason Johnson presiding, Gary Couse led the Pledge of Allegiance and Ed Bolton gave the blessing. Guests for the evening were Bobbie Daughtry, Cheryl Goodman, Kathy Bartram, and Jean Weise.

John Black gave the sports report. He reported that sports had picked up with March Madness in full swing. The Cinderella story is Virginia Commonwealth being part of the Sweet 16. On the women's side he reported Georgia Tech lost to Ohio State, while Georgia and Michigan State were still alive in the Tournament. In baseball, Chipper Jones went 3-3 in the Braves win against Houston and is hitting 0.420 in the pre-season. Derrick Lowe continues to do well and will be the Braves pitcher on opening day in about two weeks. In golf Gary Woodland won at Innisbrook, FL to pocket a cool $990,000. Local golfer Blake Adams picked up $12,943 this week. Karrie Webb, a veteran of the LPGA Tour, won for the 38th time. Kyle Busch won at Bristol and moved up to 6th in the point's total. His brother Kyle is the point's leader.

Judge Charles Brewer fined Roger Peebles for being late and John Black for getting his picture in the paper, with no mention of Kiwanis.

Jason reminded everyone about the Pre-K Fun Day on April 22 and also announced our Lt. Governor will be here in two weeks. Tim Goodman repeated the oft-heard "sell, sell, sell those tabloid ads." The deadline to sell is next Tuesday, March 29.

The program for the evening was hosted by Dwight Watt. John Black introduced Larry Calhoun, Provost at Southeastern Technical College (SETC) in Swainsboro. Larry gave us an update on SETC, what was happening this year and who was going to be in store for later. SETC has an 8-county service area and focuses on technical education with associate of applied technology degrees, diploma programs, and certificates; adult education with GED preparation, and economic development (Quick Start).

The strawberry cake, donated by Dwight Watt and baked by Sheri Watt, brought $28 and was won by John Black. L.H. Weise won the Domino's Pizza, donated by Chris Cann, and the two meals were won by Gary Couse and Tim Goodman.

Intelligent Quotes?:

Question: "If you could live forever, would you and why?"
