

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN
Kiwanis Meeting
April 5, 2011

With President Jason Johnson presiding, Paul Cerpovicz led the Pledge of Allegiance and Travis Garrett gave the blessing. Guests for the evening were Bobbie Daughtry, Jane Durden, Oskar Cerpovicz, and Luke Sowell.

Tim Goodman reported that March Madness is over and UConn is the NCAA Men's Basketball Champion. The Cinderella story ended with the Butler loss. On the women's side the Notre Dames (pun intended!) are the playing the Texas A&M Agathas (another pun intended!) tonight. No UConn sweep. By-the-way, the Aggies won. Gary Couse reported Kevin Harvick won at Martinsville. That is two-in-a-row for Harvick, who moved up to 3rd in the point's total. Jimmy Johnson is the new point's leader, followed by Denny Hamlin.

Judge Charles Brewer suspended court for the evening.

Tim Goodman thanked everyone who sold tabloid ads and gave special recognition to Bobby Seamans as the top salesman. This year we sold more ads than ever before, at least since we started closely tracking. We will show the second largest profit in tabloid sales.

The program for the evening was hosted by Jason Johnson, who introduced Hal Kraft, the current Division 22 Lt. Governor. Hal gave us an update on what is happening in the Georgia District. Governor Pat Tritt was the special guest at the Division 22 Rally and was happy to learn about all the good things happening at the seven Kiwanis clubs in Division 22. Governor Pat also commended our Division for positive growth last year and challenged us to continue to grow. Hal also reported that Horace Harrell of the Statesboro Kiwanis Club will be the new Lt. Governor for our division. He reported on the District Convention, which will take place in Savannah on August 26-28. Anyone who is interested in attending needs to see President Jason.

The Coconut Cake, donated by Jason Johnson and baked by Petite Garrett, brought $37 and was won by Jane Durden. Jane also won the Domino's Pizza, donated by Chris Cann. In addition, Jane won one of the two take-out meals, but Oskar Cerpovicz broke her streak and won the other meal.

Parting Shots:

When I was in the storm last Monday night, I could have sworn they were using a logging chain as a wind sock.

You know you are getting old when you think a hot chick is Kentucky Fried Chicken.

Never argue with Idiots. They will bring you down to their level and beat you with experience.

The Eleventh Commandment: Thou shall not commit adulthood.
