

The Swainsboro Kiwanian

May 4, 2010

President David Bartram called the meeting to order last night promptly at 7:30. (It was half hour later than usual because it was spouses' night.) Tim Goodman led the Pledge of Allegiance, and Bob Losser offered the invocation. We had a full house last night, and it certainly looked good.

Note of Sympathy: We extend our heartfelt sympathy to L.H. and Jean Weise and their family in the recent death of their son-in-law, Charles Davis.

Guests: I'll not try to name all the spouses who were in attendance, but there was a good group. Special guests included Barbara Karrh, Linda Lamb, Marcelle Brannon, and Christy Whittenburg.

Next week will be the second Tuesday, and Tobe Karrh, John Black, Jimmy Morgan, L.H. Weise, and Caroline Harless, David Bartram, Ed Bolton, Tim Goodman, Bob Losser, Paul Cerpovicz, and Jesse Hackle are invited to bring a spouse or guest.

Sports: John Black brought our sports information last night. A 20 year old Irishman by the name of Rory McElroy won the golf tournament at Quail Ridge. In Japan, an 18 year old, whose name I dare not try to spell, won a tournament, shooting a record 58 on a par 72 course. The Braves continue to hold on to the cellar.

Court: Judge Charles Brewer recessed court for the evening.

Announcements: Tim Goodman thanked everyone who sold tabloid ads and assisted with the Knotty Pine Run. The club fared well on these two events. Tim reported that we had 80 runners last Saturday. Crossing the finish line first was Mark Brannon, a 14 year old from Millen. He also won in his age division in the Fun Run.

Program: Jim Daughtry brought us the program last night. Continuing to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of Boy Scouting, he brought us tales of scouting camping trips from his years as scoutmaster. Thanks, Jim, for an interesting program.

Door Prizes: Roger Peebles provided a chocolate cake, baked by Cross Roads Café. Ron McCrosky took it home. Jane Durden won the Domino's Pizza, provided by Chris Cann. The flower arrangements of the tables were given away, as well as the arrangement at the head table. Christine McCrosky won the big one.
