

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN
Kiwanis Meeting
August 9, 2011

With Vice President Jim Daughtry presiding, Gary Couse led the Pledge of Allegiance and Roger Peebles gave the blessing. Our guests for the evening were Cheryl Goodman, Bobbie Daughtry, Kathy Lovering, Patricia Miller, Flora Youmans Simon, and Jean Weise.

Gary Couse and Tim Goodman gave an abbreviated sports report. In NASCAR, Brad Keselowski, broken ankle and all, won the Good Sam RV Insurance 500 at Pocono Raceway. Carl Edwards leads the points standings, followed by Jimmie Johnson, Kyle Busch, Kurt Bush, and Kevin Harvick. In Golf, Adam Scott won the WGC-Bridgestone Invitational in Akron, Ohio. The big story in the tournament was his caddie, Steve Williams, who was fired last month by Tiger Woods. The irony is that Williams won more money as a caddie for Scott, than Tiger won in the tournament. The 93rd PGA Championship begins this week at the Atlanta Athletic Club at Johns Creek, GA.

The Board of Director's meeting will take place on Thursday, August 18, at Ware's.

Judge Charles Brewer suspended court for the evening.

The program for the evening was presented by Kenny Youmans, son of Kiwanian Tate Youmans. Kenny, a noted dinner speaker, gave us a series of interesting bits of information and humorous stories. Beginning with a Thanksgiving gathering story of the Bobby Bowden family, he proceeding into other very interesting commentary. He gave us the 'rest of the story' about the history of coffee, including its religious history. With coffee being the second largest worldwide commodity, it gave us food for thought for our morning cup of coffee. He talked of the red poppy worn on Memorial Day and Swan Quarter, North Carolina, the home of the "Church that was moved by the Hand of God." Kenny ended with a story about Ann Landers and the letter from the "rotten little kid." All in all, a very interesting program.

The Italian Crème cake, provided by Judge Brewer, brought $23 and was initially won by Bobbie Daughtry but ended up with the Girls in the Back. Tim Goodman won the Domino's Pizza, donated by Chris Cann. The meals were won by Raymond Hendrix and Judge Brewer.

How you even gone to the Domino's Pizza and:

- (1) Ordered a Big Mac Value meal.
- (2) Told them to put the crust on top this time.
- (3) Tried to rent a pizza.
- (4) Asked if the pizza is organically grown.
- (5) Ordered 52 pepperoni slices prepared in a fractal pattern from an equation you are about to dictate.

If you answered "yes" to any of these, you are probably well on your way to senility.
