

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN

Kiwanis Meeting

October 19, 2010

With President Jason Johnson presiding, Judge Brewer led the Pledge of Allegiance and John Black gave the blessing. Guests for the evening were Carolyn Canady and Luke Sowell. A fine meal of breaded pork chops, green beans, macaroni and cheese, and squash was enjoyed by all.

John Black gave the sports report. Swainsboro High School and David Emanuel Academy won. Emanuel County Institute was idle this week. The University of Georgia, Georgia Tech, Clemson, and Michigan State won. Georgia Southern lost again. South Carolina, Florida, and Ohio State also lost. Ohio State dropped out of the number one position in Division I of the NCAA, moving Oregon or Oklahoma into the number one position, depending on whether you support the AP poll or the BCS standings. Jamie McMurray won at Charlotte, but the leader in the Chase is still Jimmy Johnson. The Giants and Phillies are 1-1 in the National League Championship series and the Rangers are 2-1 against the Yankees in the American League Championship Series. In golf, Rocco Mediate won for the 6th time this year at the FRY championship in California.

Judge Brewer suspended court for the evening.

Tim Goodman announced the Jr. Pinetree Golf Tournament for October 23rd at the Swainsboro Country Club and presented President Jason with his plaque for 2009-2010 Kiwanian of the Year.

President Jason announced the date of the chili supper fundraiser again this year on November 5 at the Swainsboro High School Cafeteria. He also announced we would be working with the Emanuel Arts Council on the October 28 event. This will replace Octoberfest. Everyone who can help needs to contact Jason. Jason announced the next Board meeting will take place on October 21 at 7:00 pm at Ware's.

The program for the evening was something different. John Black presented 10 questions listing those things you should know about East Georgia College and presented prizes to those members who knew the answer. Questions ranged from when East Georgia College was founded and its original name to the new sports programs at EGC. Carolyn Canady was able to get the answer about the founding of EGC and Judge Brewer (with help from Travis Garrett) was able to get the question about the sports programs. Young Luke Sowell seemed to know a lot about EGC.

The chocolate cake, donated by Chip Durden, brought $23 and was won by Bob Losser. Bob says chocolate is vegetarian. John Black won the Domino's pizza, donated by Chris Cann, and the two take-out meals were won by Roger Peebles and John Black.
