

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN October 29, 2019

With President Petite Garrett presiding, Frank Patrick led the Pledge of Allegiance and Pepper Fields gave the blessing. Our guests for the evening were Circle K'ers Anita Cerpovicz, Eriyona Stokes, Timmya Sanders, and San Juanita Cordero. We had 24 members present. President Petite offered condolences to the family of Kiwanian Danny Tapley, who recently passed away.

Judge Jim Daughtry opened court and fined Dess Smith for being overly cautious, coming to the last board meeting with a belt and suspenders. He also fined Dess Smith for not getting his picture in any newspaper articles.

Gary Couse gave the national sports report. In Nascar Martin Treux, Jr. won at Martinsville, followed by William Byron and Brad Keselowski. In MLB the favored Astros lead the Nationals 3 games to 2 in the World Series. They play again tonight. In the NBA the 2-1 Atlanta Hawks lost to the 76'ers 105-103. In NCAA football #8 Georgia had the week off. The polls this week show #1 LSU, #2 Alabama, #3 Ohio State, and #4 Clemson. Potential #5 Oklahoma was upset by Kansas State. In the NFL the 1-7 Falcons lost to the Seahawks 27-20. Frank Patrick gave the local sports report. The 7-1 Swainsboro High School Tigers beat Vidalia 21-9, while Emanuel County Institute was off this week. The Swainsboro Middle School football team and ECI Middle School football teams are in the playoffs. DNR has declared open season on the snakehead fish. If you catch one, kill it. The endangered species of the week is the Whooping Crane.

Mary Ellen Smith gave a Good News $2 for her niece Smith's two runner-ups finishes. Tammy Allen gave a $1 for her visit to her son at Disney World and Deana Patrick gave a $1 for Windy Ward's promotion at the library. Tim Goodman gave a $1 for the completion of eight interclubs this month.

Tim Goodman gave Circle K pins and cards to new Circle K'ers SanJuanita Cordero, Eriyona Stokes, and Timmya Sanders.

Announcements –Tammy Allen reported on the Book-A-Ween, which is scheduled for October 31 starting at 1:30 pm at the Early Head Start. President Petite reminded us about the Victory Run in Lexsy/Nunez on November 2, and the Glennville Run on November 23. We need to be at the Victory Run in Lexsy by 8:30 am. We continue to schedule interclubs. Check with Tim Goodman if you want to help. Jane Durden has begun an initiative to increase membership. Invite potential members and recruit new members for a special meal in May.

The program for the evening was hosted by Paul Cerpovicz, the advisor for the East Georgia State College Circle K. He introduced Anita Cerpovicz, President of the EGSC Circle who, along with Circle K members SanJuanita Cordero, Eriyona Stokes, and Timmya Sanders, presented a program on the active members of Circle K this year and some of the events they had participated in this fall. Spotlited were Anita Cerpovicz, Cynthia Ruiz, Sara Bell, Timmya Sanders, SanJuanita Cordero, Byran Martinez, Breana Librizzi, and Eriyona Stokes. The projects highlighted were Cookies for EGSC departments and local Swainsboro and Twin City city halls and police and fire departments, a car wash which raised $422.25 for the victims of hurricane Dorian, and assisting the Swainsboro Kiwanis Club with the cotton candy and popcorn at the Fall Festival and the popcorn at the Franklin Memorial Library festival. Future plans include reading to elementary school students, a can food drive, a clothes/coat drive, and a stuffed-animal drive for hospitalized children.

The chocolate cake, donated by Tim Goodman and baked by Petite Garrett, brought $56 and was won by Cheryl Goodman. The Domino's pizza was won by Deana Patrick.
