

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN October 5, 2021

With President Dianna Wedincamp presiding, Bobby Seamans led the Pledge of Allegiance and Dess Smith gave the blessing. We had 25 members present. President Dianna presented name tags to our three newest Kiwanians, John David Bailey, Anita Cerpovicz, and Karolina Cerpovicz.

Gary Couse gave the sports report. UGA beat Arkansas 37-0. The AP poll has Alabama #1, followed by UGA and Iowa. In MLB the Braves won the National League East with an 88-73 record. The Playoffs are now beginning. In Nascar Denny Hamlin won at the Vegas Speedway and Bubba Wallace won at Talladega. It is interesting that Denny Hamlin is co-owner of the car driven by Wallace. In the NFL the Falcons lost to Washington 34-30 and are now 1-3.

Judge Jim Daughtry fined President Dianna for referring to "Miss" Petite. Jane Durden challenged the fine since the Kiwanis rules call for fines for calling someone "Mister." The Judge took the challenge under consideration, but kept the fine. He fined Dess for going on vacation and not having pictures in the newspaper. The Judge fined Jeffery Brewer for being late. Good News $1 were given by Pepper Fields for being a Great-Great Grandparent again. Bobbie Daughtry gave a $1 for her Grandson's baptism last Sunday. Gary Howard gave a $1 in anticipation of his golf game with Governor Byron Mullican. Update to follow. President Dianna gave a $1 for her daughter-in-law's "false labor" in anticipation of the real thing soon.

President Dianna gave an update from Governor Byron Mullican. He announced his slogan for the year, "If not US, who?". The Georgia Kiwanian will be completely online this year, so be sure your email address is correct. He noted each Club should have Youth Protection Training. Governor Byron also wanted us to be sure and support the District's 6 for 6 projects this year. President Dianna also announced the community Fall Festival was cancelled for this year. We will support the "Truck-N-Treats" for the Franklin Memorial Library on October 28 from 4 pm to 7 pm and for the 4H on October 30 from 4 pm until 6 pm. The 4H event will be at the Varner Center.

The program for the evening was the distribution and summary of the 2021-2022 Kiwanis Directory by President Dianna. President Dianna summarized the important points to the Directory. She noted that we will be using "Zoom" for our meetings starting next meeting. Members who missed the meeting can get copies at the October 19 meeting or contact President Dianna for a copy. Tim Goodman announced we have a run timing scheduled for November 6 in Twin City. We have received some of the Kiwanis shirts from Stitch-N-Print. Those were distributed to members who had previously ordered shirts. Tim Goodman is in charge to this project. Contact him if you wish to order a shirt or adjust your order.

The carrot cake, donated by Travis Garrett and baked by Petite Garrett, brought $64 and was won by Jodi Jarvis. Joe Ware won the Domino's pizza.
