

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN November 5, 2019

With President Petite Garrett presiding, Pepper Fields led the Pledge of Allegiance and Roger Peebles gave the blessing. Our guests for the evening were George and Missy Elder and Circle K'ers Anita Cerpovicz, Eriyona Stokes, Mya Sanders, and San Juanita Cordero. We had 19 members present.

Judge Jim Daughtry opened court and fined Carlos Cunha for forgetting about the race Saturday, Windy Ward for forgetting her nametag, Dess Smith for an SAR picture in the paper, Bobbie Daughtry for a retired teacher's picture, and Mary Ellen Smith for a newspaper picture. The Judge was in rare form.

Gary Couse gave the sports report. In MLB the Nationals beat the Astros 6-2 to win the World Series in the final game. In Nascar Kevin Harvick won at Texas Motor Speedway, followed by Aric Almirola and Daniel Suarez. In the NBA the Atlanta Hawks are 2-3 in this young season. In NCAA football #8 Georgia beat #6 Florida 24-17 and Georgia Southern beat #20 Appalachian State 24-21. The polls this week show #1 LSU, #2 Alabama, #3 Ohio State, and #4 Clemson. In the NFL the 1-7 Falcons did not play this week. In local sports Mary Ellen Smith reported Swainsboro High School lost to Jeff Davis 21-14 and Emanuel County Institute beat Montgomery County 48-35. It is National Donut Day.

Windy Ward gave a Good News $1 for her promotion at the Library.

Announcements –President Petite thanked everyone who worked the Book-A-Ween on October 31, Tammy Allen, Cheryl Goodman, Tim Goodman, Wanda Ellis, Windy Ward, and Petite Garrett. President Petite thanked those who helped with the Victory Run in Lexsy/Nunez on November 2, Wanda Ellis, Tim Goodman, Cheryl Goodman, Windy Ward, Carlos Cunha, Petite Garrett, Mary Ellen Smith, Dess Smith, and Gary Couse. Our next run is the Turkey Trot in Glennville on November 23. We will be entering a vehicle in the Christmas Parade on December 5. See Mary Ellen Smith for details.

The program for the evening was hosted by Jim Clapham, who introduced Missy Elder of the Emanuel County Historical Society. Missy gave the club an update on the things happening at the Emanuel County Historical Museum. Missy highlighted museum items including handmade clothing items, cast-iron pots and kettles, and the pine tree exhibits showing cat-face tins used in extracting pine rosin used in turpentine production. She outlined other restorations in the county including the old school at Oak Park and the Rountree Cabin. She announced Super Museum Sunday scheduled for February 9 at the Museum.

The cake, donated by Linda Lamb and baked by Petite Garrett, was won by Wanda Ellis. The Domino's pizza was won by Windy Ward and the two meals were won by Gary Couse and Petite Garrett.
