

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN

Kiwanis Meeting

December 6, 2011

With President Jim Daughtry officiating, Bobby Seamans led the Pledge of Allegiance and Dess Smith gave the blessing. Guests for the evening were Dorothy Black, Bobbie Daughtry, Ginger Bolton, and Joe McNeal.

John Black gave the sports report. Georgia lost to LSU in the SEC Championship game. Michigan State lost to Wisconsin in the first Big Ten Championship. Georgia and Michigan State play each other in the Outback Bowl. Clemson beat Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game. LSU and Alabama will play for the national championship. I would bet on the SEC winning again this year. In golf, Tiger Woods finally won again and locally Will Claxton earned his 2012 playing rights on the PGA tour. The Falcons lost to Houston, a team with a 3rd year quarterback in his first NFL start.

Judge Gary fined Beau Gunn and President Jim for getting their picture in the paper without mentioning Kiwanis.

The ribbon-cutting for the Jean and Shot Strange Clubhouse will take place tomorrow at 2:00. Everyone is invited.

The Club is still has tickets for the drawing (December 17 at noon at the Boneyard) for a 30.06 deer rifle. Tickets must be turned in by December 13.

The Christmas Spouse's Night program is scheduled for December 13, starting at 7:30.

The program for the evening was sponsored by Travis Garrett, who introduced professional golfer Blake Adams. Blake, who lives in Nunez, talked about life on the PGA Tour. Blake played in 34 tournaments last year, so obviously he travels a lot. Although gone for weeks at a time, Blake still manages to spend time with his wife and two children. Blake played lots of sports when he was younger, but various injuries limited his activity to golf. Blake played collegiate golf at UGA and Georgia Southern and turned pro in 2001. He talked of the life of a PGA golfer, playing on Thursday and Friday and, if you make the cut, playing on Saturday and Sunday. The program was enjoyed by all.

The carrot cake, donated by Gary Couse and baked by Petite Garrett, brought $35 and was won by John Black. Chip Durden won the Domino's Pizza, donated by Chris Cann. The meals were won by Edwin Canady and Bobby Seamans.

After being away on business for a week before Christmas, Tom thought it would be nice to bring his wife a little gift. "How about some perfume?" he asked the cosmetics clerk. She showed him a bottle costing $50. "That's a bit much," said Tom, so she returned with a smaller bottle for $30. "That's still quite a bit," Tom complained. Finally, the clerk brought out a tiny $15 bottle. Tom grouched, "What I mean is, I'd like to see something real cheap." So the clerk handed him a mirror.
