With President Gary Couse presiding, Dess Smith lead the Pledge of Allegiance and Mary Ellen Smith gave the blessing. We had 16 members in attendance. Our guests for the evening were Maybrey and Terri Raulerson.

Mary Ellen Smith gave the sport's report. The Braves beat the Padres 5-4. No Nascar this week because of Easter. The winner of the Beverly Hills Dog Show was a Doberman Pinscher named Ripcord. Today is National Animal Crackers Day. Frank Patrick had a "senior moment" and forgot to get the local sports news.

Judge Jim Daughtry promptly fined Co-Sports Reporter Frank Patrick for his "senior moment." He fined Dess Smith multiple times for a full page in the newspaper. He fined President Gary for having no guest name tags. Deana Patrick gave a Good News $1 for her new grandson born on Good Friday. This is Deana and Frank's first grandchild and his name is Miles Lachlan Emerson Hall. He weighed in at 6 lbs 15 ounces and was 19 ½ inches tall.

The program for the evening was hosted by Roger Peebles who introduced Vicki Sherrod, Director of Student Life, and Katelyn Moore, Communications Coordinator, at East Georgia State College. Vicki and Katelyn gave us some information about the first-ever Bobcat Bash, a Music Fest on the EGSC campus this Saturday, April 22. Sponsored by the East Georgia State College's Student Government Association and presented by Drake O. Radio

Productions and AE Noles Events, the Music Fest will begin at 11 a.m. and last all day in the quad in the center of EGSC's Swainsboro campus and there will have no admission fee. Musical acts performing will range from country to soul, rap to gospel, and everything in between. There will also be arts and crafts vendors and food vendors, as well as many tables providing information about community events and projects. We were invited to bring a blanket or chair and stay all day. Performing will be Ben Wells, Jayy Fox, Perpetual Motion, Movers and Shakers, Brandon and Amanda Bell and Donald Jenkins.
