

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN
May 28, 2019

With President Cheryl Goodman presiding, Breana Librizzi led the Pledge of Allegiance and Jane Durden gave the blessing. Our guests for the evening were Breana Librizzi and Bill Breedlove. We had 22 members present.

Jim Clapham gave the sports report. The Braves are 30-24, still 2nd in the National League East behind the Phillies and not making ground. In the NBA the Golden State Warriors play the Toronto Raptors in the NBA Finals which begin this week. The big question around the Finals is when Kevin Durant will be back and ready to play. The Memorial Day Indy 500 was won by Simon Pagenaud, followed by Alexander Rossi and Takuma Sato. In Nascar, the Coca-Cola 600 was won by Martin Treux, Jr, followed by Joey Logano and Kyle Busch. Locally, it is quiet except for Rec. Department baseball.

Judge Jim Daughtry opened court and fined President Cheryl for a Seedling Garden Club picture. He fined Dess Smith for getting his picture in the paper once and for 3 more times he should have gotten his picture in the paper. He fined Jim Clapham for an Emanuel County Historical Society picture and Tammy Allen for being slightly late. Jane Durden gave a Good-News $1 to honor Willis Carrier, who invented the air conditioner in 1902.

Announcements – Jim Clapham reported on the monthly cookout at the Emanuel County Nursing Home coming up on June 18. Tim Goodman announced the Run for Autism is June 15 at 7:00 pm. If you can help, please be there at 6:30 pm. He reminded everyone about the raffle tickets to support the Georgia District Convention in Augusta. We have a limited number of tickets and the final day to buy the $20 tickets is July 16. Deana Patrick gave us information about the cookout for the Summer Reading on June 25 at the Fulford Center. We will be doing two shifts since we have many kids to feed. Dianna Wedincamp announced the Herrington Homestead pizza party is scheduled for June 21. President Cheryl read a thank note from the Swainsboro Police Department for their cookies from Kiwanis.

The program for the evening was hosted by Dianna Wedincamp, who introduced Breana Librizzi. Breana is a Dual Enrollment student at East Georgia State College and Emanuel County Institute and a Circle K member at EGSC. She is a member of the Future Business Leaders Association (FBLA) and she presented a program on her Little Free Library service project. Little Free Library is a non-profit organization that aims to inspire a love of reading, build community, and spark creativity by fostering neighborhood book exchanges around the world. More than 75,000 book exchanges are registered with the organization and branded as Little Free Libraries. Little Free Libraries are present in 88 countries and are places where millions of books are exchanged each year. The aim of Little Free Library is increasing access to books for readers of all ages and backgrounds. Breana explained the five steps in her plan to build her Little Free Library in Garfield. Because she likes Dr. Seuss, she plans to build her Library with a Dr. Seuss theme. We were encouraged to donate books to her to get her started. Diana has volunteered to act as a collection person for Briana.

The Hersey-bar cake, donated by Tim Goodman and baked by Petite Garrett, was won by Petite Garrett. The Domino's pizza was won by President Cheryl. The two meals were won by Petite Garrett and Travis Garrett.
