

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN

June 23, 2020

Stay Safe!

With President Petite Garrett presiding, Jane Durden led the Pledge of Allegiance and Travis Garrett gave the blessing. We had 15 members present. Lt. Governor Dan Bennett was our guest for the evening.

Judge Jim Daughtry opened court by fining himself and Bobbie Daughtry for being late. He fined Jane Durden and Tim Goodman for not having a name tag. Good News $1 were given by Cindy Ware for her grandson on the Kiwanis Dixie Youth team and President Petite for our members who are sheltering in place, Edwin Canady, Roger Peebles, and Linda Lamb.

Gary Couse gave the sports report. In Nascar Ryan Blaney won at Talladega, followed by Ricky Stenhouse Jr. and Aric Amendola. Eight drivers have won at least one race this year and will be eligible for the race-off at the end of the season. President Petite gave the local sports report focusing on about the only activity in town, Dixie Youth Baseball. The endangered species of the day is the Borneo Pigmy Elephant.

Announcements – We are still collecting children’s books. We have sold all our tickets for the District Convention $5,000 raffle. We voted to have our next meeting at the Rustic Grill on US 80 East on July 7. We also voted to meet every other week, so the next meeting after July 7 will be July 21. Dwight Watt’s intern has revised the Kiwanis Club website which can be found at <http://www.swainsborokiwanis.org/>. A special thanks to Dwight for working on the website, sending out the Bulletin and email announcements, and working with our facebook account.

Jane Durden introduced our program for the evening, Kiwanian Carlos Cunha, who exposed his hidden talent and played his guitar and sang some 60’s and 70’s songs for us. He entertained us with John Prine’s “Hello in There,” Led Zepplens “Stairway to Heaven,” and Bob Dylan’s “Don’t Think Twice.”
