With President Gary Couse presiding, Tammy Allen led the Pledge of Allegiance and Travis Garrett gave the blessing. We had 16 members in attendance.

The sports report was given by Mary Ellen Smith. The Braves lost to the Brewers 7-0. In Nascar, Kevin Harvick won at Sonoma, followed by Clint Bowyer and Brad Keselowski. Today is National Sunglasses Day. Locally, Frank Patrick updated us on the Dixie Youth All-Star Game in Augusta, with the local team losing 19-18.

Judge Jim Daughtry, back from his travels, fined Jane Durden for her picture in the newspaper. Good News $1 were given by Mary Ellen Smith for Ginny Smith's successful knee surgery.

Announcements: President Gary thanked Kay Peacock and everyone who helped with of the Scott Nursing Home Beauty Pageant last Thursday evening. He reminded all members about no meeting on July 4th. Frank Patrick announced a pizza party for the youth at Herrington Homestead on July 10th at 11:30 am. Call him if you can help. He also announced we have a cook-out for the Summer Reading Program at the Library on July 20. More information is coming.

The program for the evening was hosted by Betty Coleman, who introduced Mary Claire Brenan, representing Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA). Mary Claire, retired from DFACS, volunteers her time as an advocate for foster children. These "special advocates" are the eyes and ears of the homes where foster children are placed. She stressed the need for suitable foster homes and families. One function of CASA is to get financial assistance for the foster families. Mary Clare feels the volunteer work with the foster children is very rewarding. Anyone interested in volunteering to help can contact her for information on how they can help.

The strawberry cake, baked by Petite Garrett, brought $30 and was won by Tammy Allen. The Domino's pizza, donated by Chris Cann, was won by Petite Garrett. The meals were won by Bobby Seamans and Joe Ware.
