

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN

July 11, 2023

With President Tammy Allen presiding, Cassie McIntyre led the Pledge of Allegiance and President Tammy gave the blessing. We had 14 members present. Our guest for the evening was Judy Wells.

Judge Jim Daughtry levied fines to members for not wearing his name tag, including Tim Goodman, Jim Clapham, Paul Cerpovicz, Anita Cerpovicz, and Karolina Cerpovicz.

President Tammy gave a local sports report. The Recreation Department finished strongly with the 14U and 12U girls softball teams finishing as state champions. The 10U girls softball and 14U boys baseball teams both finished 3rd in the state. Local SHS junior Demello Jones attended the Overtime Seven on Seven Finals in Los Angeles, an elite competition for some of nation's best high school football players. Demello has committed to play at UGA in 2024. The endangered species of the day is the Javan rhinoceros.

The member spotlight for tonight was focused on Deana Patrick. After graduating from Dimond High in Anchorage, Alaska, Deana attended the Art Institution of Atlanta. While in high school, she worked at Reeve Aleutian Airway and Robinson Humphrey Stock Brokers. She was also a national officer in the Future Homemakers of America. When she attended a FHA National Convention, she actually attended a White House tea hosted by 1st Lady Pat Nixon and 1st Daughter Tricia Nixon. She is married to Frank Patrick, which explains that she also worked at KFC in Swainsboro. She worked at and ultimately retired from DFACS. She now works at the Franklin Memorial Library. She and Frank have been married 50 years and have two children, Michelle and Adam, and a grandson Miles. Her favorite candy bar is an Almond Joy.

Good News $1 were given by Mary Ellen Smith for the visit of her brother Richard and by President Tammy for surviving trips to Myrtle Beach and Orlando to visit her sons.

Tim Goodman announced that we have training for everyone on the incoming Board on Sunday, July 16, starting at 2:00 pm at the Fulford Center on the EGSC campus. Since the training changes every year, all members of the 2023-2024 Board need to attend. Tim also thanked the seven Kiwanians who helped with the Firecracker 5K on July 1. It was #67!!!.

President Tammy hosted the picnic-themed program for the evening. We had fried chicken and hamburgers, baked beans, potato salad, and ice cream. We played picnic bingo, won by Jim Daughtry and Judy Wells.

The chocolate cake, provided by President Tammy, brought $35 and was won by Cassie McIntyre. Jeff Palmer won the Domino's pizza.
