

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN July 23, 2019

With President Cheryl Goodman presiding, Tammy Allen led the Pledge of Allegiance and Bobbie Daughtry gave the blessing. Our guest for the evening was Cayla Page. Cayla is a member of the Cordele Kiwanis Club. We had 24 members present.

Jim Clapham gave the sports report. The Braves are 60-41, 1st place in the National League East, 6 1/2 games ahead of the Nationals. He noted the local SAR Chapter was the militia color guard to open the Braves game last Sunday. In Nascar Kevin Harvick won at the New Hampshire Motor Speedway, followed by Denny Hamlin and Erik Jones. Joey Logano barely leads Kyle Busch in the Monster Energy Nascar Cup Series. The Tour de France began in Brussels on July 6th and will end on July 28th in Paris. Currently Frenchman Julian Alaphillipe has the yellow jersey after the completion of 16 of 21 stages.

Judge Jim Daughtry fined Travis and Petite Garrett for going to Europe just to read the newspaper, Tammy Allen and Petite Garrett for their cooking picture in the paper, and Tammy again for being Cook-of-the-Week. He fined Dess Smith just because. He also fined Little Judge Mary Ellen Smith. Good News $1 were given by Tammy for a successful summer reading program at the library and another $1 for finally getting a suitable renter. President Cheryl gave a $1 for the good attendance at the meeting. Dess Smith gave a $1, but the Editor forgot for what.

Announcements – President Cheryl reminded we would be helping the new Dublin Kiwanis Club with their Charter Night on August 8th at the Dublin Country Club. We will be helping with registration, decoration of the meeting room and the silent auction. Please sign-up if you would like to attend and/or donate to the silent auction. President Cheryl noted we would be collecting school supplies this month for the local schools. Deana Patrick thanked everyone who helped with the June 25 cookout for the Summer Reading at the Fulford Center. President Cheryl announced the Board will meet at Peking China on July 25 starting at 6:30 pm. We will have the business meeting prior to eating so board members could attend the Historical Society meeting.

The program for the evening was hosted by Wanda Ellis. The program was given by Lt. Governor Tim Goodman. He gave a brief update of what happened at the Kiwanis International Convention on June 27-29 in Orlando. Daniel Vigneron of Luxembourg was elected KI President, while Art Riley of Maryland was selected as President-Elect, and Peter Mancuso of New York was elected Vice President. A Safe Kids Resolution and Non-Discrimination Amendment were passed by the 1600+ delegates, while other amendments dealing with voting and eligibility requirements for international office failed. Tim also reminded everyone of the Division/District events to close the Kiwanis year and to prepare for next year. He reminded us about the Dublin Charter Night on August 8. He noted on October 12, 1922, the Dublin Kiwanis Club sent representatives to the Swainsboro Kiwanis Club's Charter Night and we needed to return the support to the newly reformed Dublin Club. He also noted the last Division Council meeting, as well as the GOB Training for the incoming club officers, was scheduled for August 3 in Reidsville. The last Division Council meeting will discuss the qualifications and selection of Lt. Governors and potential divisional reorganization in the Georgia District. The Georgia District Convention is scheduled for August 16-18 in Augusta. The installation of the new officers for the Swainsboro Kiwanis Club is on September 24. It is a busy ending to the Kiwanis year.

The 14-layer chocolate cake, donated by Pepper Fields and baked by Sally Jo Price, brought $59 and was won by Jane Durden. The Domino's pizza was won by Cayla Page. The two meals were won by Bobby Seamans and Cindy Ware.
