

THE SWAINSBORO KIWANIAN
September 17, 2019

With President Cheryl Goodman presiding, Jim Daughtry led the Pledge of Allegiance and Roger Peebles gave the blessing. Our guest for the evening was Rocky Davis. We had 23 members present.

Jim Clapham gave the sports report. The Braves are 93-59 and lead the National League East by 9 1/2 games. In NCAA Football #3 Georgia beat Arkansas State 55-0 and will play #7 Notre Dame next week. Clemson still holds the #1 ranking. In Nascar Martin Truex, Jr. won at Las Vegas followed by Kevin Harvick and Brad Keselowski. In the NFL, the Falcons beat the Eagles 24-20. Frank Patrick gave the local sports report. Swainsboro High School beat Cross Creek 48-0, Emanuel County Institute lost to Metter 21-7, and David Emanuel Academy lost to Victory Baptist 54-42. The SHS girls softball team is 10-10, while the ECI girls team is 17-2 this season. The endangered species of the week is the Amur Leopard.

Judge Jim Daughtry fined Windy Ward for being late and Dess Smith for no pictures in the paper, even with many SAR articles. Petite Garrett gave a Good News $1 for her middle grandson's survival after "getting trucked" on the football field. Mary Ellen Smith gave a $1 for her niece's trip to UGA with the ECI cheerleaders.

Announcements – Tim Goodman reported on the recent painting of the nature trail railings at High Falls State Park for a District Kiwanis One-Day project. President Cheryl reminded us that we are participating in the EGSC Family and Friends Day on September 21 by doing popcorn and cotton candy. Don't forget our Installation Night is next week (September 24). We also have the Color Run in Soperton on October 12 and the Fall Festival on October 15. Circle K is doing a car wash for the hurricane victims on September 25 for those that wish to help. Sign-up sheets for those events were on the back table. We also have a joint Board Meeting this Thursday, September 19, at 6:30 at Peking China.

The program for the evening was hosted by Bobby Seamans, who introduced Rocky Davis. Rocky is Chief Deputy of the Emanuel County Sheriff's Department. He presented a program on crimes and scams which target seniors. He noted the most popular phone scams dealt with soliciting money for family members in trouble, false arrest warrants, false claims of winning lottery and Publisher's Clearinghouse contests, being selected as a "secret shopper," soliciting donations for local law enforcement agencies, and medicare and health insurance focused solicitation for personal information. He discussed the ease with which scammers can get information and the use of "spoof" phone numbers. He also encouraged us to be aware of ways to protect ourselves in active shooter situations.

The butter-lemon pound cake, donated by Bobbie Daughtry and baked by Petite Garrett, brought $45 and was won by Petite Garrett. The Domino's pizza was won by Dess Smith. The two meals were won by Wanda Ellis and Tim Goodman.
