

The Swainsboro Kiwanian

January 9, 2007

President John called the meeting to order a few minutes after 7:00, since the Gideons were also meeting tonight. Joe Hoke led the Pledge, and Bob Losser offered the invocation. We had a very good attendance with my unofficial count of 29 present on the first cold night we have had in several weeks.

Sports

Tobe Karrh, with the assistance of James Smith reported that the University of Florida defeated Ohio State University 42-14 to become the reigning national football champions. They also hold the national title in basketball, the first school to hold both titles simultaneously. Louisiana State University defeated Notre Dame by the same score! I'll bet Jimmy Wedincamp is happy about that one!

Court

Paul Cerpovicz, James Smith, and Ron McCrosky were hauled before the court for failing to acknowledge their birthdays with the requisite dollar bill.

Announcements

The chili supper will be held on Friday, January 19, from 5:30-7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Kiwanians are requested to come at 4:45 to be sure everything is ready for our guests. This is one of our major fund raisers, and everybody is needed to assist. The specific assignments, which Dess Smith handed out last Tuesday night, are listed below. Turn in ticket money next Tuesday.

The Division rally will be held Saturday, February 3, at 6:00 at the Kiwanis Fairgrounds in Statesboro. Our District Governor will be present at that meeting. We need a large contingent from our club to support Lieutenant Governor Tim Goodman.

International Meeting is in July in San Antonio, Texas.

Georgia District Meeting is August 17-19 in Albany (That is All Benny).

Lt. Gov. Tim will be going to Brooklet next Tuesday evening, and to Vidalia a week later at noon. See Travis Garrett if you are interested in being part of an interclub for either of these occasions.

Caroline Harless invited the club to a five-course dinner at Flat Creek Lodge benefitting the Georgia Southern University Foundation on January 27. Cost is $60 per person. For reservations, call 237-3474 by January 21.

She also said that facilities of Flat Creek Lodge are available to people who may be coming into town for the Pine Tree Festival.

Rodney Beckworth informed the club that Former Kiwanian Dale Renfroe died last week. Our sympathies go out to his family.

Hank Evans has been in the hospital recently, but is back home now. He is still a little weak but hopes to be back with us soon. Bill Rountree has been a little under par, and we hope he will be back with us soon.

The Program

Our program chair tonight was Stacey Barber. Stacey presented a most interesting program on the Million Pines Endurance Ride which is held annually at his father-in-law's farm in Treutlen County. Horseback riders come from a large number of states to compete for prizes in this ride. This year marks the fifteenth year the ride has been held. There is a short ride of 30 miles and a long ride of 50 miles and riders may enter either one. The winning rider is determined not only by the time in which the ride is completed but also by the physical condition of the horse at the end of the race. Thanks to Stacey for a very good program.

Door Prizes

Rodney Beckworth provided a home-made coconut cake, which was won by Jin Daughtry. L.H. Weise won the Domino's pizza, furnished by Chris Cann. The take out meals were won by Paul Cerpovicz and Tim Goodman.
