"Kiwanis Governor visits Swainsboro Kiwanis"

"The Kiwanis Club of Swainsboro held its weekly meeting on Tuesday night, May 5, 2015 at Catered Creations at 7:00. With President Tim Goodman presiding, we had 27 members in attendance and two guests, Past Lt. Governor June Hunter and Georgia District Governor Jimmy McCorlew.

Our program for the evening was hosted by Dwight Watt and was introduced by President Tim. Tim introduced Georgia District Governor Jimmy McCorlew. Governor Jimmy and Tim served as Lt. Governors under past Governor Dewey Smith. Governor Jimmy gave us greetings from the Kiwanis International President Dr. John Button and praised our Club for our Centennial Projects and all we do for our community and Kiwanis. He noted this was our 92nd year of service, as we celebrated Kiwanis International's 100th year. Governor Jimmy encouraged us to participate at the International Convention on June 25 - 28 in Indianapolis and the Georgia District convention on August 7 - 9 in Columbus.

Chair Chip Durden shook the "Drop-in-the-Bucket" for the Eliminate Project doing much better than Dess Smith last week. President Tim thanked everyone who helped with the Knotty Pine 5K last Saturday, May 2nd, and Frank Patrick thanked everyone who helped with the Pre-K FunDay on April 30 - May 1, our Kiwanis One-Day Project. Chair Jane updated us on our Centennial Projects, as we begin to gather games to send to the troops. We had a 10 person interclub Tuesday, May 5th at the Vidalia Kiwanis Club. We will re-charter the EGSC Circle K this week.
