

L to R: President Tim Goodman, Kiwanian Gary Couse.

"Couse Speaks to Kiwanis"

The Kiwanis Club of Swainsboro held its weekly meeting Tuesday night, July 28, 2015 at Catered Creations at 7:00. With President Tim Goodman presiding, we had 22 members in attendance and no guests for the evening.

The program for the evening was hosted and delivered by Gary Couse. Gary continued with his series on his trip to Europe in 1965. Tonight we began on the streets of Bulgaria and then proceeded to Italy, where he took us sight-seeing at the Grand Canal in Venice and the Harbor at Toranto. We took a ferry to Sicily, took part in an excursion to Castoreale in Sicily, and saw the ruins near Agrigento, Sicily. We ended our tour of Sicily at Mt. Aetna. Traveling to Rome, we did the tourist thing at the Forum and St. Peter's Square. We visited Florence, seeing the statue of David, and ended the tour at the Leaning Tower of Pisa.

President Tim reminded everyone about the Georgia District Convention cash raffle. The tickets are $20.00 and the winner gets $5,000.00 and the Club that sells the winning ticket gets $1,000.00. The absolute last time to get tickets was tonight, July 28th. He is sending them in tomorrow morning.

Chair Jane Durden reminded everyone that we will be delivering the games to the veteran's hospital in Dublin on Friday morning, July 31st. She is still collecting used books for the Friends of the Library sale this month and our 100-project for next month is gathering school supplies."
