"Kiwanis Hosts Scott Beauty Pageant"

The 2018 Ms. Scott Health & Rehab beauty pageant was held on Monday, April 30, 2018 at 6:30 p.m. Sponsored by the Swainsboro Kiwanis Club, the pageant was held in the Community Room of Scott Nursing Home. The room was beautifully decorated with a floral arch and balloons hanging from the ceiling. The pageant was begun with Becky Browning giving the invocation and Jim Clapham, Kiwanis President welcomed everyone and then introduced Bobby Seamans, emcee for the pageant. Kiwanian Frank Patrick, escorted the 2017 Queen, 83 year old Marion Dixon into the room. She observed the pageant from the floral arch. The parade of contestants were escorted by Swainsboro Kiwanians. As each of the ten (10) contestants was escorted in, the emcee introduced them and gave a brief bio of them. After all was introduced they were ask questions and interviewed by Seamans. Ranging in ages from 60-89, interviews were quite lively. Each contestant was judged by the State Nursing Home score sheets. Kim Page entertained with special music during intermission. The 2017 Queen was interviewed at this time also. She represented Scott Nursing Home in the State Pageant and was one of the top winners. Crowned as 2018 Ms. Scott Health & Rehab was 89 Year Old Maggie Mimbs. Runners up were: 1st-Gayla Douglas; 2nd-Marilyn Thigpen; 3rd-Flossie McCowan; 4th-Peggy Mills. The closing remarks were made by Rosa Love, Scott Nursing Home Activity Director. Escorts were: Gary Couse, Pepper Fields, Tim Goodman, Frank Patrick; Bobby Peacock, and Joe Ware. Judges were: Wanda Ellis, Cheryl Goodman and Cindy Ware. Kiwanian, Kay Peacock served as chair for this event. Everyone enjoyed a beautiful reception following the pageant. A great variety of finger foods and punch was served.
